EDITORIAL COMMENT.

POLITICAL — POTPOURRI

Roosevelt is still a commanding figure in American politics. While he lives, he will still be a commanding figure. Roosevelt is a world character, and Americans should be proud of him. A noted travel in the Orient recently said: "In China in Japan, in India, wherever I stopped at a hotel, the first question asked was: "How is Mr. Roosevelt."

Monroe, as special agent under President Jefferson, claimed the credit for the purchase from France of Louisiana; Monroe, as President, assumed full credit for the purchase from Spain of Florida; Secretary Seward, under Lincoln, the credit of the purchase from Russia of Alaska. President Wilson may want Mexico but, if so, he does not propose to acquire it thru the services of a diplomat.

The primary election will be an event of the month before another issue of The Terminal is on the press. Whatever the result, there is no denying the fact that successful aspirants for office conducted a clean campaign. Able men have aspired for legislative honors and the county's affairs will be handled by business men, experienced in the conduct of civic affairs. Let us pray the November election is also a clean political event.

A LOYAL REPUBLICAN.

In William A. Rugg of Martinez the Republicans of Contra Costa and Marin counties have a candidate for State Senator to whom they can give whole-souled support, safe in the knowledge that he is a Republican, tried and true, who has battled earnestly and long for the Republican party and who has always been loyal to its nominees.

Mr. Rugg is not an "eleventh hour" convert to the Republican party; he did not flop back into the ranks for ulterior motives, but in season and out he was been steadfast in his support of the grand old party that is to be returned to the guiding of the ship of state the 4th of next March. That is why he is in the fight this year.

Mr. Rugg did not consider making the race until George E. Bennett of Kentfield, who was put forward by Marin Republicans, withdrew. Marin county then had no candidate and the leading Republicans of Marin, with the co-operation of some Contra Costa leaders, urged him to qualify, which he did.

Reports from Marin county indicate that Mr. Rugg will be given at least 80 per cent of the Republican vote there, and from all parts of Contra Costa expressions of encouragement and good will have come, for friends in every nook and corner of this county are fast rallying to the support of the dean of newspaper publishers in Contra Costa.

Mr. Rugg is consistent, firm and honest in his convictions, he will battle for what is right and just and he will not vote against the expressed will of his constituents. W. A. Rugg will be the Republican nominee and our next State Senator.

Annexation Is Being Considered

The annexation proposition, if carried out, would lessen the tax rate of Albany materially, although the present rate of 75 cents on $100 is bringing lots of new homes to Albany and making this city one of the desirable residence towns of the state.

Melchoir Was the Star Hitter of the Game.

Ever since Mr. Calahan was eight years of age he has earned his own living, education and advancement till at the present time he is interested in three of the largest drug stores in Contra Costa county as well as other property. From his varied interests one can readily appreciate the fact that the county will receive every attention in the Legislature. He has had seven years' experience in municipal affairs and laws, which qualifies him, as to ability, higher than any candidate seeking the office of Assemblyman.

In his knowledge of good roads, orchards, farming and waterways, he has had not only the practical experience but the theoretical as well.

You can make no mistake in voting for him on Tuesday, Aug. 29th.

The campaign for legislative representa tive is nearly over. During the canvass W. E. Calahan has visited every city, town, manufacturing plant and all the farming districts of the county. He has met with the most wonderful success and assurance of loyal support from people interested in all lines of business. He has made good in life in all his business enterprises and will certainly make good in the Assembly.

He is a capable, impartial man who works for the interest of all concerned in the entire county. For this reason his friends are legion in every section of the county, all lending their untiring efforts to elect him.

He is a good mixer; an energetic and conscientious worker; never tiring till the object of his goal is reached. He is fearless in his opinion, but always considerate of the opinion of others.

Jack Martin says that the new building will soon be under way, and that it will be a fine improvement for the corner of Third and Macdonald avenue.

Friends of Rowdy Elliot will be pleased to learn that he has more than made good since he has been with the Cubs. He has never failed to get at least a hit in each game.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

News Received the Past Week

TWO BRITISH CRUISERS AND ONE GERMAN SUBMARINE GO TO BOTTOM OF SEA.

London, August 21.—Two British light cruisers, the Nottingham and Falmouth, were sunk Saturday in the North Sea by German submarines, while the vessels were searching for the German high seas fleet, according to an official announcement issued by the Admiralty shortly before midnight. One German submarine was destroyed by the British.

A German squadron of some fifteen warships, including large cruisers, is reported in the North Sea by trawlers arriving at Ymuiden, Holland, a Reuter dispatch says. The squadron was sighted early yesterday in the region of Whitebank and was accompanied by two Zeppelins. It was on a northwesterly course.

BRITISH TROOPS REPULSED AFTER HEAVY SACRIFICES

Berlin (via London), August 18.—The official statement of today says:

"Western theater: North of the Somme the enemy is continuing his energetic efforts regardless of heavy sacrifices. For these efforts the British brought forward several fresh divisions. Southwest of Martinpulch they succeeded on a narrow front in pressing backward our first line into one situated close behind. On the other hand they have been completely repulsed north of Pozieres and due west of Foureaux wood.

"The French again deferred their attacks to nocturnal hours, and with strong forces advanced against our positions between Guillemont and Maurepas about midnight. They were repulsed with the most sanguinary losses. On the salient portion of our line, northeast of Hardcourt, bitter fighting has taken place, so far without a decision. The activity of the artillery on both sides continues violent.

"On the right bank of the Meuse the enemy attacked in the evening on a wide front, between the Thiaumont wood and the Chapitre wood. He also attacked repeatedly in the western sector of the mountain wood. At Fleury village the fighting still continues, otherwise the enemy assault has been frustrated everywhere.

"A French biplane was forced to descend Wednesday near Nescle by our anti-aircraft guns.

"East theater: Front of Archduke Charles Francis: Turkish troops of the army of General von Bothmer repulsed Russian attacking detachments.

"In the Carpathians we furthered our success on the Starawipozna hill. About 200 prisoners and several machine guns were captured.

"Front of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg: Apart from minor but lively engagements west of Lake Nobel, sixty miles northeast of Kovel, which has not yet come to a conclusion, only unimportant advance post encounters took place.

"German aeroplanes attacked Russian destroyers and one submarine northeast of Kara Burnu with success.

"The official Russian communication of August 11 mentions the destruction of a battalion of the Third German reserve infantry regiment. It is ascertained that the battalion lost only 200 men on this occasion.

Balkan front: After the fruitless attacks of the entente powers in the last few days the allied (Teutonic) troops proceeded to deliver a counter-attack. Florina has been captured after a fight with the Serbian Danube division."

Florina is five miles from the Greco-Serbian border.

Berlin (by wireless via Sayville), August 18.—The official statement today says:

"The Italians continued their attacks on the front from Salcano to Merna and against the heights east of Goriza and the sector south of Vippach as far as Lokvica, assaulting uninterruptedly with large masses while holding the adjoining sectors under strong artillery fire. Our troops repulsed all the storming attacks and held their positions along the entire front, inflicting heavy losses, after violent hand-to-hand fighting.

"Hostile advances near Plava and Cagora and on the Dolomite front, on Croda Delancona, were repulsed."

ALLIES DROP 90,000 ON TEUTONS IN ONE HOUR

Headquarters of German Army Group on the Somme Front, August 12 (via Berlin to London, August 16).—The expenditure of artillery ammunition by the entente allies on this front has reached a prodigious volume, often striking the rate of thirty-two shells a second during drum fire. Not infrequently, along the entire Somme front, nearly 90,000 shells have been dropped in an hour, while a conservative estimate puts the average for the twenty-four-hour period at more than 1,000,000 shells.

With this rate of fire the financial cost of the offensive is naturally high. What the approximate losses in human material amount to it is difficult to estimate. That the losses of the British in certan actions have been frightful is affirmed by German officers who, on the other hand, frankly admit that their own losses have been far from light, though all insist that they were not nearly so heavy as the British.

The German expenditure in ammunition has been much lighter than that of the British for the reason that the German artillery concentrates its efforts on special objects.

SEIZURE OF SHIPS BY ENGLAND PROBED

Washington, Aug. 18.—Possibility that the seizure at Hong Kong of American goods on the British steamer Kafue, from New York to Manila, following a similar seizure on the steamer Chinese Prince and two Spanish vessels, may foreshadow a general interference with American trade with the Philippines, led the State Department today to send for full details from the American consul at Hong Kong with the view of making a strong protest.

The goods on the Kafue were confiscated by British authorities on the suspicion that they were consigned to German firms in the Philippines.

BIG STORM'S DEATH TOLL IS THIRTEEN

Damage in Corpus Christi Section Estimated at Two Million Dollars

Corpus Christi, Tex.—The loss of life from the tropical storm which struck Corpus Christi and ten adjacent South Texas counties on Friday night, August 18, has been placed at 13, including nine members of the crew of the small freighter Pilot Boy, which foundered off the Aransas Pass jetties. Two Mexican women were killed at Katherine, a settlement on the King ranch, near Alice, Tex., and one Mexican was reported killed at San Diego. Both towns are from fifty to sixty miles inland.

The total damage in this section, of which Corpus Christi bore the heaviest part, was estimated at $2,000,000. This includes devastation of a large portion of the lower coast's cotton crop, which was ready to be picked. Damage at Corpus Christi was estimated conservatively at $500,000.

The storm area is that 150 miles of the lower Gulf Coast from Corpus Christi to Brownsville, reaching inland from thirty to fifty miles.

MILITIAMEN SUFFER FROM SEVERE STORM.

El Paso, Tex., August 20.—The wind that accompanied a severe rain and electrical storm this evening blew over a large wooden hall in the camp of the Thirty-second Michigan Infantry, bruising several men, and made the night uncomfortable in all of the military camps in the neighborhood of El Paso. Torrents poured down the streets of the town, tying up the street car service.

DRASTIC STEPS URGED TO END PARALYSIS

Washington—Warning that the infantile paralysis epidemic may appear next summer in other States not gravely affected now, unless drastic measures are taken to control its course, was given August 18 to the national conference of public health officers by the special committee named to recommend ways and means for its suppression.

The committee recommended that State health authorities be notified by uniform health certificates of removal of all children under 16 years of age from epidemic areas. Quarantine of one State or community against another was disapproved.

The committee recommended that during the usual prevalence of infantile paralysis schools should not be opened without needed supervision by a health authority.

Certificates for interstate travel, the committee held, should be signed by Federal or State health officers. The report said:

"Certificates of private physicians will not alone be a sufficient basis for the issue of a permit to travel. Permits for interstate travel should be based on medical examination. It is believed that the federal government can perform all duties of notification and certification required in interstate relations in case of unusual prevalence of infantile paralysis."

Regarding measures to deal with epidemics, the report recommended:

"Immediate report of all cases and exchange of weekly reports between State and Federal authorities.

"Delay observations for two weeks of all children under 16 leaving an infected district.

"Isolation of all diseased persons and attendants for six weeks.

"Hospital treatment when possible.

"Private funerals for victims.

"Prohibition of assembly of children in public places during an epidemic.

"Suppression of flies and the common drinking cup and a general educational campaign on cleanliness and sanitation, with particular instructions of parents and children concerning personal hygiene, especially of the mouth and nose."

Chicago—Eighty known cases of infantile paralysis have been received at the Cook County and Durand Hospitals, in Chicago, since July 1. Sixty-one patients are quarantined in two big wings of the County Hospital. Seven more are at Durand.

An average of three patients a day is being received at the County Hospital, and the procession is increasing rather than diminishing. Emergency preparations are being made to receive a much greater number.

New York—The health department reported only a slight change in the epidemic of infantile paralysis August 18. New cases during the last twenty-four hours numbered 125 and deaths 32, against 121 cases and 32 deaths yesterday.

Redding—B. H. T. Anderson of Chico has leased the new theater in Redding.

PAPER CRISIS CUTS SIZE OF NEWSPAPERS

Philadelphia Publishers Agree to Reduce; Weekly Publications Use Patents

Philadelphia, August 21.—The swift rise in the price of white paper, which apparently has not yet reached its peak, has induced newspaper publishers in this city to limit the size of their papers until the situation is relieved.

After a series of meetings the publishers have determined upon the following:

All daily, evening and Sunday newspapers will immediately reduce the size of their issues to the total of eighty or more pages weekly.

Beginning September 1, the accepting from wholesale purchasers of unsold copies will be discontinued. Heretofore this privilege has been granted to newsboys, newsagents, newstands and carriers.

Eight great dailies have subscribed to this agreement.

The cost of white paper, which has forced action in Philadelphia, recently led the publishers of Chicago newspapers to consider a similar step of retrenchment.

In Helena, Mont., the Helena Independent has announced that it will reduce its size at least two pages daily, and from eight to ten pages Sundays, until the "monopoly in print paper is broken and the price reduced."

Facts and figures were presented to the Philadelphia publishers, proving that the mills of the country are unable to cope with the present demand. Not only have the mills been unable to lay up reserve stocks, as in former years, but they have been unable to keep up with the current demand.

SEATTLE PAPERS TO OMIT EARLY EDITIONS.

Seattle, August 21.—To curtail the consumption of news print paper, the Seattle evening papers today eliminated their early morning editions, combining their 9:30 a. m. and noon editions into one edition at 10:30 a. m. Hereafter four regular editions will be issued daily instead of five.

PUBLISHERS USE PATENTS TO KEEP UP GOOD SERVICE.

San Francisco—Many publishers of weekly papers who formerly used all home print are considering the use of ready-prints to keep up their standard and at the same time hold down their expenses.

Some of the more prosperous country papers have already found the ready-print houses a boon to them since the raise in price of paper.

F. DE BERNA, EARLY-DAY MINING FACTOR, IS DEAD

San Francisco—Frederick de Berna, who came to California in 1851 and was associated with mining and political activities in this city for many years, died last Sunday night at his home in Alameda, at the age of 86.

At one time De Berna held the position of Chinatown Deputy Assessor. From the early seventies he was active in the administrations of Alexander Badlam, Louis Holtz and John D. Siebe.

A native of Mulhausen, France, De Berna came to California at the age of 21, and at one time owned a rich gold placer in Calaveras county. He also owned mines at San Andreas and Jesus Maria. In 1865 he removed to San Francisco, married Dona Juana Ureta de Forrest, a beautiful Spanish woman.

Since the death of his wife, De Berna has made his home with his son, Carlos F. de Berna, at 1721 Chestnut street, Alameda. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

HEAD OF SCHOOL IS KILLED IN WATER DIVE

Cloverdale—Francis A. White, for three years principal of the Cloverdale high and grammar schools, was instantly killed at 6 o'clock last Monday evening at McCray's resort, a mile and a half above here, in diving off a springboard into the Russian river.

White's neck was broken, according to the verdict of two physicians, Drs. J. R. Morris and W. C. Shipley, who were summoned from here, but whether it was from striking the bottom of the stream or from striking a sunken log is not known.

School opened, and, after the session, White went to the river with four or five of the boys for a swim. His companions dragged his body from the water before summoning help. White was 36 years old, married and the father of five children.

REBORN CITY GIVEN PRAISE BY HUGHES

San Francisco's Welcome Has Been One of Greatest Delights of My Trip, Says Candidate

San Francisco.—Charles Evans Hughes, Republican nominee for President of the United States, had Friday evening, August 18, in the Civic Auditorium, the largest political meeting ever held in this city.

The place was filled by 7:30. At 7:40 the police had to close the doors. A great many people were turned away.

There was close to 14,000 people in the building.

So thick was the throng that men as eminent as United States Judge W. W. Morrow and President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California were crowded from the platform and had to accept rescue in the press section.

There were national flags and bear flags draped on walls and balcony railings, while the blue and gold of California made a background for the national emblem at the speakers' platform.

At 8:10 the bank played "See, the Conquering Hero Comes," and Justice Hughes was seen coming down the central aisle from the main entrance.

The people rose and gave him a good cheer and yell.

Accompanying the nominee came Colonel A. E. Castle, Chester H. Rowell, William H. Crocker, Francis V. Keesling, Marshal Hale and Detective Miles Jackson. As he moved up to the platform Justice Hughes bent down for a hand-shape and a few words with President Wheeler.

As he stepped to the front of the speakers' stand and the flashlights began to bombard like an action on the Somme, there was another burst of good applause. It was seen that the nominee wore a black sack suit and waved a soft black hat. His unconventional atire set off a man of erect figure, martial bearing and a smile that came pleasingly through a large mouth.

The band played "America" and all stood and cheered.

Justice Hughes stood between Crocker and Keesling during these ups and downs, with Rowell just one remove away, the four making the group on the speakers' stand—and the flashlight battery played on and on.

It was 8:21 when Keesling stilled the tumult and began with "Ladies and gentlemen." He expressed his pride in San Francisco, said the greatness of the meeting showed that San Francisco knows how, and referred to Justice Hughes as "a great American patriot," which won a cheer.

At 8:30 Crocker introduced Charles Evans Hughes.

"Fellow citizens," began the speaker, and it was noticed that his voice was decidedly hoarse, but that it had good reaching quality. "I salute with you San Francisco's favorite son," he said graciously, turning to Mr. Crocker. "I have traveled from Sandy Hook to the Golden Gate, but nowhere on that journey have I witnessed a spectacle more inspiring than this," he declared in compliment to that splended outpouring of citizens.

"I come here as the spokesman of the national Republican party, and with local differences I have no concern," he said impressively, and that expression won him a fine cheer.

As he proceeded it began to be evident that Justice Hughes is in no sense what the Democrats used to call a "rabble rouser." He has none of the roaring periods and perfervid gesticulations that we are accustomed to in those who get the people to their feet in fine frenzy.

He made his points like a lawyer before the highest court—deliberately and with even balancing of words. There was little responsive cheering and some people in the back of the hall who could not hear began to filter away.

When he got into preparedness and warmed to the Mexican question he had a readier response, and at times there was almost a touch of thrill. The greater part of the crowd hung on to the close, only the back seats and the standing-room-only people going away.

BOY OF 12 INDICTED FOR MURDER OF MOTHER

New Orleans.—Walter Zimmerman, 12 years old, August 18 was indicted by the Grand Jury with first degree murder for shooting and killing his mother here last July. Court officials said the boy was the youngest person ever indicted for murder in Louisiana. The District Attorney stated that if he is convicted, he might be sentenced to the penitentiary or hanged.

Richmond—The funeral of Albert Richards, 20, who is believed to have committed suicide while hunting, was held here Friday, August 18.

Chico—Miss Virginia Kelly, domestic science teacher of the Chico Normal, has resigned and will take a position in the San Francisco Girls' High School.

Sacramento—One thousand eight hundred and forty-one automobiles were registered in California in the week closing August 17, indicating that sales are just as lively as during the early spring months. The grand total number of automobiles in operation in California is 202,191. The highest license number issued was 207,734. The income of the department is $2,075,172.

Sacramento—After being buffeted around from pillar to post for the last thirteen years, during which time a nation-wide search has been conducted for her by her wealthy grandparents, Florence Gannon, 15 years old, has been found in Sacramento. She is employed at the store of Weinstock, Lubin & Co., and will shortly be given into the custody of her grandparents, who are desirous that she get a good start in life.

Redding, August 20.—George Bayha, who lives on his large estate near the state highway bridge over the Pitt, recently received an Alaskan hound, for which he paid $400. On his first hunting expedition, last week, the hound ran into a porcupine and was peppered fore and aft with quills, that were sunk into the flesh an inch deep. Bayha brought the suffering dog to Redding to be treated by a veterinary. Chloroform was administered, and then it took the dog doctor two hours to pull out the quills.

The $400 hound will recover.

News Notes From the Border

CARRANZA TO RESTORE SEIZED PROPERTY

Mexico City, August 17.—General Carranza will soon issue a decree establishing a criterion for determining which of the properties confiscated by the Government shall be returned to the owners and which shall be finally taken over by the Government.

The standard will be based upon the varying degrees of the political or criminal activity of the owners against the Government, the culpability of the highest leaders, such as Generals Huerta, Diaz and Mondragon, being considered such as to make the chances of their property reverting to them of their heirs absolutely negligible.

MORENO FALLS IN BATTLE WITH TROOPS OF GEN. RAMOS

Chihuahua City, Mex., August 17.—Zeferino Moreno, once one of Villa's most powerful leaders, was killed in the recent engagement at Des Cubridora between bandits and the forces of General Matias Ramos, according to additional reports reaching here today. Moreno was charged with many depredations in the Torreon district.

Carlos Flores, a former Villa Colonel, was brought here today from Torreon, where he was arrested on charges of attempting to incite revolution. He will be tried with others held on similar charges shortly.

TAMES CAMPS NEAR BORDER 300 OUTLAWS

El Paso, Tex., August 17.—Mariano Tames, who, with a number of members of the garrison and civilians, left Juarez recently with the announced intention of joining Villa, has brought between 200 and 300 men under his standard, and is encamped about five miles south of Villa Ahumada, eighty-three miles from the frontier, according to unconfirmed reports here tonight. Tames, according to the reports, which military authorities in Juarez refused to comment upon, is making no attempt to conceal the knowledge of his whereabouts.

General Francisco Gonzales, commandant of the army of Northern Chihuahua, who returned today from Chihuahua City, detailed his brother, Colonel J. Gonzales, with about 200 men, to investigate the reports.

NEW REPORT OF DEATH OF BANDIT RECEIVED.

El Paso, Tex., August 21.—A new report of the death of Villa was received here today by Andres Garcia, Mexican Consul. The report, emanating from San Geronimo, Chihuahua, said that the bandit chieftain died of blood-poisoning resulting from his wounds at Tallamantes, near Parral, on July 9, and was buried near there. While the report was transmitted for what it was worth to Mexico City, it was given little credence at the local consulate.

GIRL ARTIST IS DROWNED IN THE NOYO RIVER

Miss Edith Rodda Loses Life While Swimming

San Francisco—Miss Edith Rodda, president of the Art Students' Club at the University of California in 1914 and a student who stood high in the regard of artists about the bay, was drowned last Sunday afternoon while swimming in the Noyo river, near Noyo River Tavern. The body was recovered and taken to Fort Bragg.

Miss Rodda was the daughter of Mrs. Anna F. Rodda of 2616 Sacramento street and a sister of Attorney Alfred G. Rodda.

Miss Rodda had been the guest of Miss Alice Swanson, daughter of Captain Eric Swanson of 1372 Masonic avenue, this city, at the Swanson lodge on Noyo river. She went for a dip in the river at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. She was swept into a deep pool by a strong current. Harry Braden, manager of the Noyo Tavern, attempted to rescue the drowning girl, but she sank before he was able to reach her.

Miss Rodda was born in San Francisco twenty-five years ago. She took a deep interest in art, and during her activities in that course at the University she was elected president of the Art Club.

During the Panama-Pacific Exposition Miss Rodda worked hard for the success of art exhibits, and no little of the beauty of those exhibits was due to her efforts.

TWO CHILDREN LOSE LIVES IN SAN JOSE FIRE

Vain Efforts Are Made to Save Little Ones From Flames

San Jose.—Fire which destroyed the home of Frank and Mary Juarez, at Fourth and San Antonio streets, here Friday night, August 18, burned to death the two Juarez children, John, aged 3, and Thomas, aged 5. John Morse, a lodger in the house, incurred a broken arm and possible internal injuries when he jumped from a second story window to save his life.

Mrs. Juarez had put the children to bed and gone out to a show. Mrs. Mary Espinosa, a neighbor, saw smoke issuing from the bedroom occupied by the children and ran to their window, calling for them to come out. She had no time to attempt a rescue, for just as she reached the window she saw the children pull the bedclothing over their heads, and a moment later they were covered by a seething mass of flame. The father of the children is a cement worker, at present employed in Oakland.

Philadelphia—The local health authorities having charge of the fight against infantile paralysis received word August 18 that the authorities of Trenton, N. J., have quarantined against merchants who send goods to customers on approval, because of the possibility of such goods carrying disease germs upon their return journey.

Where Aristocrats Shine.

Your aristocrat is doubtless often a very objectionable person and in a Democratic country like this we affect to turn up our noses at him and regard him as a cumberer of the earth. Yet it must be said for him that worthless as he may be in peace, and contrary as his claims of superiority may be to all proper principles of natural equality, he rarely, almost never, fails to give a good account of himself when his country needs him in a great crisis. In the French revolution the old nobility of France showed the world that they knew how to die if they did not know how to live. And the casualty lists which are being published in London now prove once more that when it comes to courage and patriotism the "aristocrat" is seldom found in the rear. At the rate at which the aristocrats are being killed at the front in France and Belgium there will be no "lords and gentlemen" left in Great Britain if the war lasts much longer. If all the "common" people in England were doing as well, there would be no criticism of English patriotism. In spite of their leanings to democracy, American sympathizers with the allies, in view of the prominence of titled names on the honor roll of the dead, might almost be inclined to wish that the entire British nation was composed of aristocrats today. Can it be true after all that there is a real significance in the old phrase—"blood will tell" and "noblesse oblige?"—Baltimore Sun.

SAW DEATH ANGEL

Apparition That Appeared to Royal Children.

Story Related by Governess of Russian Princesses—Czar and Czarina Believe Supernatural Figure Really Was Visible.

Grand Duke Ernest of Hesse had a very pretty little daughter by his first wife, Princess Victoria Melita of Great Britain and Coburg, now married to Grand Duke Cyril of Russia. This little girl's name was Elizabeth, and on account of her beauty and sprightly cleverness she was a universal favorite and the only tie between her parents after the estrangement, F. Cunliffe Owen writes in the New York World.

While staying with her uncle and aunt, the present czar and czarina, at their picturesque country seat in Poland, she succumbed when seven years old to poison—ptomaine poison, according to some, but according to others drugs conveyed into food or drink by the Nihilists for the purpose of taking the life of Emperor Nicholas.

A remarkable account of the affair is given by an English woman of the name of Miss Eager, who, after spending a number of years in the service of the emperor and empress of Russia as the nursery governess of their young children, published on her return to England, with the full authority and approval of their majesties, a volume entitled "Six Years at the Court of Russia."

According to her, little Princess Elizabeth, or "Ella," of Hesse was taken ill one afternoon or night and died before the following morning. Between nine o'clock and ten o'clock two of the little girls of the czarina, who were sleeping together in a room adjoining that of their seven-year-old cousin of Hesse, suddenly alarmed every one within hearing by the most frantic screams.

When the empress, Miss Eager and the doctors rushed in they found the two little grand duchesses standing up on their beds, shrieking and shaking with terror. It was some time before they could be soothed, and then they related that they had seen a man with flowing robes and huge wings in their room. While they were still talking the eyes of both children suddenly dilated with terror, and both pointing in the same direction, they cried: "Look! Look! There he is again. He has gone into Ella's oom. Oh! Poor Ella! Poor Ella!"

Neither Miss Eager nor the czarina, nor yet the physicians, could see anything. But a few moments later Princess Ella suddenly sat up in her bed, crying: "I am choking. I am choking! Send for mamma!" Three hours afterward the child, who had immediately after the cry for her mother fallen into a state of coma, passed away, in the absence, of course, of her parents.

Miss Eager expressed her firm conviction that the little grand duchesses had seen a supernatural apparition and that the apparition in question was the angel of death. That the czar and czarina shared her impression is shown by the fact that they had authorized her to publish the story in her book, as well as by the circumstance that she retains their favor and good will and is in receipt of an annuity from them for the remainder of her days.

Makes His Money En Route.

A genuine California booster is with us. He is C. F. Langley of Watsonville, Cal., according to an Atlantic City correspondent of the Philadelphia North American.

Mr. Langley is president of the Pajaro Valley National bank in Watsonville, and he puts the bank, the town and the state on the map by advertising in an unusual way.

Whenever a waiter presents a check in the dining room, Mr. Langley brings out a pair of scissors and a roll of green paper, clips off a $5 bank note, signs it with his fountain pen and pays the check. The captains and waiters know their business and accept Mr. Langley's money-making stunt without a lift of the eyebrows. The bank notes are already signed by the cashier of the California bank.

Opportunity in Syria.

From the comparatively few letters that pass the rigid censorship of the Turkish government, the Presbyterian board in the United States learns that the work of the Syria mission is going on as usual. The boys' schools have not as large attendance as in ordinary years, owing to the fact that so many homes have suffered financial losses. The girls' school, however, at Bierut, has more applicants than it can take care of. This is because of the fact that the schools carried on by missionaries of other nationalities, such as the French and English, have been closed and the missionaries sent away. Their pupils have consequently knocked and not in vain at the door of the American Girls' school in Beirut.

FOR STREET CAR DRIVERS

Device That Enables Motorman to Tell at a Glance If He Is Running on Time.

A time-schedule indicator particularly useful for motormen, is being employed on an English street car line. The central portion of the device consists of an ordinary clock. About the face of the clock is a large circular frame into which is fitted a cardboard ring. This is divided by radiating lines into 60 equal segments corresponding to the minutes of the hour. The names of the stops on the motorman's trip are written in clockwise order on this ring. The number of spaces separating the names corresponds to the number of minutes apart these points are on the schedule. The cardboard is then placed in the frame so that, at the time of starting, the minute hand of the clock will point to the name of the place where the journey begins. As the trip continues the motorman can tell at a glance whether he is ahead or behind his schedule. If desired, the return journey can be indicated on the other side of the cardboard. In case the trip is of more than an hour's duration a second ring can be inserted at the end of the first hour.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

To Amuse Children.

So much has been written regarding entertainment for little folk on rainy days one would suppose all had been said. Not so, for little people will take great delight in the following pastime, which is so easy that the mother will feel well repaid:

Take an old magazine, on its pages carefully paste cuttings, some news illustrations, which make the book quite attractive. Save the fairy and other stories which are published in the Sunday newspapers; ask a friend or two to do the same; supply the children with blunt-pointed scissors and a jar of paste. The result will be many happy hours and an amusing as well as instructive book.

Of course, a blank book or a scrapbook is more substantial, but for economy and pastime an old magazine will answer.

Pictures from old calendars are good, as they usually picture some noted spot about which mother or nurse can readily weave some story starting with the time-honored "once upon a time."

UGH! A DOSE OF NASTY CALOMEL

It salivates! It makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—Adv.

Outdoor Living Brings Health From Babyhood to Old Age

By SAMUEL G. DIXON, M. D.
Commissioner of Health of Pennsylvania

God breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man became a living soul.—Genesis.

Air is life; without it man ceases to live. Living in impure air, his health gradually depreciates and he becomes a dyspeptic, predisposed to tuberculosis and other diseases. Often after suffering for years, during which time he is unable to enjoy the good things of life, he meets an untimely death.

The majority of us have to work in offices and buildings artificially heated during the cold season. Our places in which we spend so many hours during the winters and early spring days are far from having perfect ventilation. This therefore is the reason for us all to take advantage of mild weather conditions to get all the fresh air possible to build our physical bodies up so as to resist the unfavorable conditions we must submit to during the cold months of the year.

This should apply to all ages, especially including babyhood and on up to old age. It means outdoor living as much as possible both day and night. When compelled to be in buildings keep the windows up; otherwise you have dead pockets of air in your rooms at your homes and place of occupation.

Clean, well aired, homes built so as to admit of plenty of fresh air all the year around and outdoor living as much as possible during the summer, will do much to bring health to the home and just in proportion to your health your life will be worth living.

Some New Ways of Getting Best of That Tricky Memory.

The old method of tying a string about the finger to recall to mind some task to be done at a certain time has been done away with. The new way is to transfer a ring from one finger to another. On the accustomed finger the ring feels natural and does not cause annoyance, but on any other finger it slightly irritates. This irritation constantly will aid in recalling the task to be done. Just try it once.

Another and more novel way is to carry a colored ribbon in the coat pocket. Suppose, now, you are in your office. Your wife phones you to be sure and bring home a certain thing. Go to your coat hanging on the office rack, take out the ribbon, and tie it tightly around a sleeve. At night when you start to go home your fist will jam itself against the tied sleeve. "Oh, yes," you will say to yourself, "there's that cough sirup Molly told me to be sure and bring home tonight," and off you will go at once to make the purchase.

POULTY POINTERS

Dispose of all the old stock you do not need. This had best be done now, while prices are good and before the annual molt starts.

The feeding of milk to young chicks has a most favorable influence on the growth and on lessening the mortality. It tends to prevent mortality from all causes, and if fed soon enough and for a sufficiently long period greatly reduces the death rate caused by bacillary white diarrhea.

An open-front poultry house is better than too much glass, even in our cold northern climate.

The hot weather is already giving the plumage a rusty appearance, and it will grow worse from now on until molting time.

Keep the chicks free from lice; keep them growing, for every little attention tells and brings nearer the coveted blue ribbon.

A splendid mixtre for laying hens is equal parts of cracked corn, wheat and oats, which should be scattered in the litter.

Be sure to give plenty of water and see that the chickens, both large and small, have plenty of green food. If your yards do not have plenty of grass, try dividing the runs and sowing part to rye or rape.

Greatness.

We can be great by helping one another,
We can be loved for very simple deeds,
Who has the grateful mention of a brother
Has really all the honor that he needs.

We can be famous for our works of kindness,
Fame is not born alone of strength or skill,
It sometimes comes from deafness and from blindness
To petty words and faults and loving still.

We can be rich in gentle smiles and sunny,
A jeweled soul exceeds a royal crown,
The richest men sometimes have little money,
And Croesus oft's the poorest man in town.

—Edgar A. Guest in Detroit Free Press.

Use of Jersey.

It is likely that when jersey, both silk and wool, at last finds its proper level it will appear among the trimmings. As broad or narrow bandings, as the foundation for hats and as collars and cuffs and scarfs it will never have an equal, but where American women at any rate are consulted no lasting vogue will ever be conferred upon a material which sags incorrigibly and stretches in every direction at the same time.

A Few Smiles.

Getting Monotonous.

"I see we are facing a new crisis this morning," said the first restaurant patron, scanning his newspaper.

"Yes?" replied the second restaurant patron, mildly, as he continued to dig into his cantaloupe.

"You don't seem excited."

"Why should I be? By Jove, sir! During the past 12 months we've faced so many crises that when the next one bobs up I shall be tempted to turn my back on it!"

Preparedness.

"War is a terrible thing."

"No doubt about that."

"I see where some debutantes have called an urgent mass meeting."

"What's the idea?"

"They are going to send sofa pillows to their friends at the front."

True.

"A man who owns an automobile is not always envied by pedestrians."

"No?"

"A great deal depends on whether he's in it or under it."

A Real Hardship.

"I certainly will be glad when the war in Europe is over," said Asphodelia Twobble.

"Of course, you will, my dear. And so will everybody else. It's a cruel tragedy."

"Oh, I wasn't thinking about that. It's so much fun to go to the pier and see one's friends off for Europe. I haven't been able to do that for ages."

Bearing Up Well.

"You are never satisfied."

"Oh, yes, I am," answered the lazy individual.

"You'll have a hard time convincing me of that."

"Well, you never hear me complaining because I live more than two miles from the nearest golf links."

Both Departed.

"You don't often see an old-fashioned whittler nowadays."

"No. The type is dying out. Also the diminutive bad man who used to pull out a bowie knife and threaten to whittle his foe down to his size."

Serious Obstacle.

"Mr. Dubwaite is so anxious to go to Mexico and fight that Mrs. Dubwaite can hardly restrain him."

"I had no idea he was so warlike."

"Yes. There's only one thing that keeps him from going."

"What is that?"

"He says the social inferiority of a private is more than he could endure."

Wise and Otherwise.

Wise is he who has the cage ready for the bird.

Old age commands respect—except in jests and poultry.

If you can get a horse at a bargain drive the bargain.

The worst man is sometimes capable of giving the best advice.

When a fool is angry he opens his mouth and closes his eyes.

THE REPEATER PAR EXCELLENCE

ITS GLORY HAS DEPARTED

The Sausage, Declares the Government, Isn't What It Was Fifty Years Ago.

A half a century ago sausage sizzled and burst. On a cold fall evening it diffused a pleasing aroma through the house, and the children, drawn to the kitchen by an irresistible compulsion, were quite sure to get underfoot—which was the great childish crime.

Sausage was then at the zenith of its power. It had all seasons for its own, but preferably the fall and the winter of our content. When you say that it sizzled in the pan, you have said much. Sometimes it was necessary to prick it with a fork, lest it burst and send the hot fat flying about the stove. The odor of sage was in the air and the prepared sausage had about it a crispy, frizzly, sagy "bite" that was delicious.

But how changed! How fallen from its high estate! Sometimes, we are led to fear, never to rise again. "Commercialism" insinuated its way into the sausage trade, the false commercialism of the writers on political economy. Chopped beef took its place on the links beside the pig, and it has even been said that considerable water was forced into this unnatural federation. Be that as it may, somewhere about the time of the Caliphate of Ben Harrison sausage lost its sizzle. Appeals to the meat men seem to be of little effect, though here and there gleams of hope are held out to the hand only to become apples of Sodom to the teeth.

Some of the savants who have studied the subject find that in the old days there was youth, and the appetite that waits on wood sawed in the open air, mixed into the ingredients of the sausage. But this cannot be so, for the children of today show by their actions that sausage is simply food, set on the table, and on a par with all other foods. They eat it, and make no comment.

No, sausage has changed!—Minneapolis Journal.

Jews as Farmers.

The back-to-the-farm movement among American Jews is being pushed with the energy and ability for which the race is noted, and the 50,000 Jewish farmers now so engaged are doubtless but the pioneers of an army of peace which in a few years will number many hundred thousand. In the opinion of a prominent delegate to the recent conference of Jewish farmers in New York city the Jews engaged in farming in this country are doing more good by blazing the pathway of practical agriculture for the immigrant than the 1,000,000 Jewish people engaged in business, the arts and professions. "That is rather overstating it, no doubt, but it is overstating an important truth," according to another commentator.

Restraint Needed.

"What have you to say for yourself?" asked the judge of the prisoner at the bar.

"Just this, your honor; I'm afflicted with a dual personality. Good and evil are constantly at war within me and the crime of which I am accused was committed when my better self had been overthrown."

"In that case, the best place for you is a prison cell, where even if your evil side does triumph occasionally, it will only result in a minor infraction of the rules; two years."

Ideals.

"Are you doing your best to make Crimson Gulch better and more beautiful?"

"Of course we are," replied Broncho Bob. "We've armed the posse with a fine collection of the latest weapons, and before fall we expect to have a new cemetery full of choice statuary."—Washington Star.

War Raises Drug Prices.

The big war in Europe is helping to make it costly, if not criminal, to be ill these days. The proverbial ounce of prevention is not only better than a pound of cure, but it is a hundred times cheaper. The war has added from 25 to 300 per cent to the consumer's cost of these drugs, and many of them—entirely disappeared from the market—cannot be obtained at any price. In many instances no sign of lower prices appears. In others there is certainty that diminishing supply must result in the most outlandish price figures. Factors in staple drugs affected by the war are, they insist, endeavoring to conserve the limited quantities they have by fixing prohibitive figures—not for the purpose of gouging the consumer, but to make it possible to hold on to enough of the precious products to supply emergencies. Veronal, its solutions and compounds has almost disappeared from the market, and antipyrin, to be had in only moderate quantities, has advanced from 35 cents to $5 per ounce.

Admiration and Authority.

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

At the Statewide conference held in San Francisco, July 29th, composed of members of the Republican State Central Committee and all Republican County Central Committees, a resolution endorsing the candidacy of Willis H. Booth for U. S. Senator was unanimously adopted. It concludes:

*" * * * and having in mind solely the welfare of the State and Nation, we earnestly urge every true Republican to give his or her support in both primaries and general election, to a man, who, tried by every moral and mental test and measured by every praiseworthy political standard, is eminently fitted to represent this great commonwealth in the Senate of the United States—Willis H. Booth."*

BASEBALL HEROES OF OLD.

Two Famous Pitchers, Amos Rusie and Poor Charley Ferguson.

Not a few of the more than 150 veterans to whom my nearly half a century old question was aimed would hear to none other than the mighty Amos Rusie as the greatest pitcher of all time. For his miraculous speed he is famous in the minds of the fans who watched, for this speed and nothing else. But ball players tell me that his sharp curve ball, that broke almost directly over the plate, was even harder to hit than was his fast ball. They are willing to go on record as saying that on two occasions when Treadway of the old Brooklyns was at the plate, his feet far apart in his customary position when batting, this amazing inshoot thrown up by the mighty Amos darted swiftly from the plate and whizzed between the batter's legs.

Give Rusie a dark day and a little ball and woe to the team that was seeking a better batting average. In his day the league balls were made in two sizes. Often, too, in those days one ball only was used throughout the game. It was part of the official scorer's duty to toss out the ball, and it was optional with him whether the little or the big ball was put in play. When the old New York team appeared on the field at Pittsburgh for a series one day the sun was obscured and storm clouds hung low over the diamond. The man who then was captain of the Pittsburgh team told me the story. "'If it's Amos today,' I said to John Gruber, 'give him the big ball. If it's anybody else, it doesn't matter.'

"'The score card said, 'German or Rusie for New York.' So out came the little ball. But when the game started Rusie went to the box. And on that black day, and with that little ball in play, what he did to us I'll not forget, no, not in a million years."

In the progress of my inquiry I heard many a time the remark, "If poor Charley Ferguson only had lived!"

Poor Ferguson! He was in the spotlight only long enough to be picked by a practically unanimous public as not only the greatest pitcher who up to that time ever lived, but the greatest all around player as well.

One of his methods of testing his control of the ball was to place on end on a stool at the plate the frame of a cigar box. Then he would go out into the pitcher's box and try to pitch the ball through the little oblong space thus presented. There are living today men who remember to have seen Ferguson pitch—pitch, mind you, not toss—the ball through the frame of the cigar box four times out of five trials.—Elmer Ellsworth Bates in Leslie's.

Big Guns.

Lord Kitchener at a dinner once apologized for his want of eloquence.

"I can't speak. That is why I don't," he said. "I think it is better to keep silent than to put you to sleep. The officers of the British army are noted for their inability to make a public speech. Whenever an officer is foolish enough to rise to answer a toast the guests say to one another significantly as he sits down:

"'Well, you know, the bigger the gun the bigger the bore.'"
